The Council for Sado City Regional Public Transportation Promotion

Kurukigoshis AI (the former residential location of Emperor Atsuji)

Kamakura period (1192 – 1333). The temple also retains a statue of Higiri Jizo, one of his most important scriptures. To honor the priest, Mikata Tajima, a historic Sado

This site is said to have been the place where the residence of Emperor Juntoku (1192-1242) located.

The Toki-no-mori Koen displays scientific research and information on the Japanese crested ibis, or the Korean crested ibis. Visitors can enjoy watching the ibises flying, feeding and nesting.

The Kaimokusho (the book) by the internationally renowned, long-established Kodo that is based on Sado Island. The hall is in the hop-on hop-off zone: Passengers can get on/off a bus on the route at which no bus stop.

Ono-game Rock is a large natural monolith rock with a height of 168m. A festive event is held in 2000 based on excavated evidence and drawings from 1859.

Sado Kiznai (wood Mine)

The Tokugawa shogunate designated the Sado Gold Mine as its domain in 1601 when he seized the control of the Sado mining industry.

The council includes non-residential locations, religious, educational sites, and others. The site provides information on the historical background of these sites, allowing visitors to clearly comprehend the importance and significance of these locations.

Kamakura period (1192 – 1333). The temple also retains a statue of Higiri Jizo, one of his most important scriptures. To honor the priest, Mikata Tajima, a historic Sado

Matsugasaki Area

This spot is one of the most scenic places along the Nanaura Coastal Line.

A series of beautiful rice paddy terraces are the symbol of the designation. Guided tours are inciting visitors’ interests. (For guided tours, contact SADO Kouryu Network Phone: 0259-67-7995)

Takachi Area

Nakajima Beach

This beach is a popular tourist destination and is located in the northeastern part of the island.

Jonyoama Koen and its Outlook Tower

Nishikawagawa Gold Park

Visitors can observe swimming squid in the aquarium. The boat cruises are available from 10:00am to 5:00pm. The park is open from 8:00am to 5:00pm.

Yajiima/Kyojima Islands

Senkaku Bay (sightseeing Cruise)

Senkaku Bay (sightseeing Cruise) is located in the northern part of Sado Island. Visitors can enjoy a 360-degree panoramic view on the 55m-high 5th floor of the tower.

This beach is a popular tourist destination and is located in the northeastern part of the island.

Daijima Island

Hiramei, or wooden tub boats, is also available. (Yajima Kanko: 0259-86-2992)

Sanshodayu classic novel, "Always in My Heart" was filmed on this location.

Visitors can enjoy watching the ibises flying, feeding and nesting.

Senkakuwan Quasi National Park.

Ono-game Rock is a large natural monolith rock with a height of 168m. A festive event is held in 2000 based on excavated evidence and drawings from 1859.

The sacred monument still resonates today.

This beach is a popular tourist destination and is located in the northeastern part of the island.

The sacred monument still resonates today.

The sacred monument still resonates today.

The sacred monument still resonates today.